Monday accompanied by Assistant State Engineer Nichols, the governor inspected the proposed Santa Cruz river bridge site. While here the distinguished visitor was a guest at the National Hotel, where he met many Santa Cruz county friends.

A ROYAL WELCOME.

Shriners Capture and Hold Nogales for Three Days.

"The Convention City" again has done herself proud.

The reception and entertainment accorded the Noble Shriners Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, will long remain, pleasantly in the memory of hundreds of the city's illustrious visitors and citizens of "Nogales, the Convention City."

Everybody and then some more, was at the depot last Sunday morning when the Shriners, nobles of El Zaribah Temple, Shriners-to-be and many visitors who would like to be Shriners, arrived.

The welcome was royal and sincere, the banner bearing the inscription: "Welcome to the Desert of Nogales. May You Find It An Oasis," being an inspiration of Mayor Mix, Special Representative of the Illustrious Potentate."

Mayor Mix, in a few well chosen words, presented the "Gold Key" to Illustrious Potentate Christy, after which the jolly visitors sang:

Put on your old red bonnet,
With the Shrine Emblem on it,
And then we'll go and see
Captain Mix.

He's a real live Shriner,
And they make none finer;
He's the real Nogales kind.

After the reception at the depot, the guests were shown about the city in automobiles, and given a reception at the Santa Cruz Club, under the auspices of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Club, to whom great credit is due.

In the afternoon everybody witnessed the bull fight in Nogales, Sonora, at which the Shriners and their friends were special guests of honor. Besides other distinguished guests, Governor Maytorena of Sonora and his staff witnessed the fight.

During the evening the theatres and Santa Cruz Club were crowded with Nobles, their ladies and their friends. The concert in the Sonora plaza by Governor Maytorena's band, was greatly enjoyed by the visitors. Monday forenoon the Nobles were taken in autos into the desert where they were given a Degree and plenty of "camel's milk," after which the caravan returned to Nogales, the real "oasis in the desert."

At 3 o'clock a business session was held at Masonic Hall.

The great street parade in the evening headed by the 12th Infantry band, followed by the "Bull," the bull fighters, Nobles and Nobies, was easily the best, most spectacular ever seen in Nogales.

Commencing at nine o'clock p. m., the Grand Ceremonial and Initiation was held at the Hall, until a late hour.

Tuesday afternoon the visitors more than two hundred ladies and gentlemen, enjoyed the sights, about the city, and at three o'clock in the afternoon the Daughters of Isis, the ladies' branch of the Shriners, held a meeting in the Masonic Hall, where a number of Nogales ladies were initiated into the Daughters of Isis.

The convention ended Tuesday night with a grand ball in the Santa Cruz Club, given by the local Shriners to the visitors, members of the Club and their friends. Music was furnished by the Twelfth Infantry orchestra, led by Bandmaster Kline.

The elegant hall was beautifully and artistically decorated with the Shrine colors and large American flags, between which was an immense electric Shrine emblem. The effect was most pleasing.

A delightful luncheon was served in the club rooms during the dance, and delicious punch was served the guests in the ball room.

The dance lasted until long after mid-night, and was pronounced one of the most successful ever given in the city.

The visitors departed for their respective homes Wednesday afternoon, all happy and glad they came.

The following Masons were initiated into the mysteries of El Zaribah Temple of the Mystic Shrine:

H. M. Clagett, Theron Richardson, Dr. A. L. Gustetter, W. G. Bowman, John E. Roberts, Harris C. Mundy, E. K. Cumming, Ernest B. Spriggs, E. E. Noon, A. E. Charles Kiesselbach, Geo. T.
